AGAIN AT THE FRONT

E. H. WILLISFORD TRANSFERRED FROM THE REAR TO BATTLE LINE IN FRANCE

Mrs. E. H. Willisford has just received a letter from her husband which indicates that he has again been sent to the front, where he has been in service almost ever since he reached France. Just what section of the front he is on now, she of course has no means of knowing. When his last letter was written he was in an aviation camp near Dijon, at some distance from the fighting line in a part of France which is undamaged by war and very beautiful. He wrote that Dr. Patton, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Los Angeles, worked with him for six weeks in July and the first part of August and they very much enjoyed their association. When he went to the aviation camp he took with him baseball and football equipment and directed athletic work there in addition to his service in the canteen. He says in all his letters that he is well and happy and considers this the great year of his life.

The recent letter referred to above, which was dated August 15th, brings word that on the 17th of August he expected to go back to some point about the same distance from the front as before. In this letter he acknowledges a package he had just received which was mailed to him by Mrs. Willisford March 10th and which she expected would reach him before his birthday in April. The address, he says, was perfectly correct and he can not account for the delay, but declares the goodies it contained were all right and not hurt at all by the wait.

Mrs. Willisford states that the June number of "Association Men," the organ of the Y. M. C. A.'s War Department, prints a picture of a dugout where Mr. Willisford was stationed while in the trenches, and in the August number is another picture showing Mr. Willisford in the trenches with his open suit case before him handing out supplies.

MISSIONARY PICNIC

As usual at this season, the Woman's Mission Circle of the Glendale Baptist Church held its annual picnic at La Ramada Thursday afternoon. A business session preceded the supper served at 6:30 beneath the pergola and under the spreading branches of big old pepper trees which afforded grateful shade from the unusually hot sun. The husbands and families of members were guests of the society and made a company of about one hundred happy picnickers. A program of after-dinner speeches followed the banquet, T. W. Sprowls responding to the toast, "To the Ladies," J. L. Gray to "Who Is the Head of the House?" G. Ely to "The Best Part of the Picnic," Roy Kent to "Hooverized Meals." Rev. Eugene Haines made an excellent toastmaster and introduced the speakers in happy phrase.

STELLAR ATTRACTIONS

GREAT AND NEAR GREAT ARTISTS WHO WILL SHINE AT BENEFIT

A galaxy of stars will dot the firmament at the big Community Harvest Festival Red Cross Benefit, next Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening. Chief among these luminaries will be dainty Mollie McIntyre, theatrical star, now playing at the Morosco Theatre, Los Angeles, who will sing a cycle of popular Southern melodies. Miss McIntyre toured England and America in that delightful Scotch comedy drama, "Bunty Pulls the Strings," which brought joy to so many by its quaint, homely humor. Mabel Van Buren, Lasky Photo Play Co. star, will also be in attendance at one of the many attractive booths on that occasion. Local moving picture fans will remember Miss Van Buren for her fine work in "Ramona."

In this class also belongs piquant Elineta Supulveda, dance and song artist of several seasons on the Orpheum circuit, who will take a leading part in the spectacular pageant-play, "The Great Souls of Little Things," written especially for presentation at this time by Fred Myton of the Universial Studio Scenario Department. Those taking leading parts in the play are Mrs. H. E. McMullin, C. W. Peckham, Esther Ralston and Clarence Ralston. The play will also feature a number of dainty dancing groups, under the direction of Mrs. Pearl Keller. Another feature will be a big chorus of mixed voices. The whole production is under the direction of Dr. C. W. Bachman and the general supervision of Mrs. W. W. Ramsay, president of the Tuesday Afternoon Club.

FRUIT PACKER'S VIEWS

ERNEST SPARR DISCUSSES CROP AND LABOR SITUATION AND RAILROAD CONDITIONS

Sidelights on the labor situation and on the fine attitude that is being taken by our girl students, have been contributed by Ernest L. Sparr, manager of the Sparr Fruit Company of this city.

Several days ago the fact that woman pickers had been engaged to harvest the Valencia crop in the orange orchard of R. W. Meeker of this city was published in this city and caused considerable comment. Mr. Sparr, who assisted in securing this labor said, when asked to what class of workers the women belonged, were they Mexicans? "No, indeed. They are the society girls of Glendale, from the very best families in town. We can not get women from what we term the 'laboring classes.' These who have enlisted are High School students or recent graduates. One of the young ladies is attending Normal School.

"The labor situation is a grave problem right now and a serious proposition. The citrus fruit growers have this much to be thankful for, however: there is a light crop and it is moving very slowly. We manage to get along some way and we do the best we can in the field and in the packing house. The situation is particularly hard now because everybody wants help and it simply isn't here. The grape growers are taking all the help they can get and paying extra wages to procure it and their demands have cut into our labor supply. The peach and tomato crops are on too and demanding pickers and extra help in the canneries. The shipyards and the draft have taken many men we formerly relied upon, and we are going to be compelled to call upon women for labor."

In regard to citrus crops, Mr. Sparr said: "Movement of Valencias is just beginning. In this district the crop is only fifty per cent of normal. We shall not have more than ten or twelve cars where we should have 25 or 30. The quality is very good and so is the price, which is averaging to the grower from $4.50 to $5.00 a box. There are not many Valencia orchards in this district.

"As to lemons, if it were not for the army consumption we might not be able to move them at all. The demand even there is not very great as the soldiers use so much deciduous fruit. The soft drink business which has heretofore furnished such a market for lemons is absolutely shut down on account of the sugar shortage. Even on this coast there is no local demand from that source.

"However, I thing in the long run, everybody is going to be better off. Money is more plentiful, wages are higher, and prices better. There will necessarily be waste, particularly of lemons, but the products we do ship will bring more money. This does not mean oranges and lemons alone; it applies to everything.

"Farmers are making more money than ever bfore in the history of the country and can sell everything they produce. We notice the lemon situation because of abnormal sugar conditions, but everything else is booming. And we do not look on the lemon market as bad, but simply very dull. Fortunately there are not many to be picked this summer. But it is a matter which is going to take care of itself. The sugar producing countries have not been interfered with by war and with the increase of ships we shall be able to import sugar from the Orient. Japan has big stocks and will send her sugar to the allies or to this coast if it is possible for her to do so.

"About the government control of railroads, it has improved conditions. The system is a whole lot better than it was as far as moving freight is concerned. It gets through much faster and is handled more promptly."

WEDDING PICNIC

Comrade and Mrs. J. L. Denny of 491 Verdugo road, whose wedding occurred recently, were guests of honor at a picnic of their friends of the Post and Corps Thursday. Fifty strong, they gathered at the Denny home about 10:30 in the morning and spent a happy day with them, the luncheon which they brought with them being served at noon. Mrs. Denny was president of the Woman's Relief Corps two years ago, and Comrade Denny is one of the most esteemed members of the N. P. Banks Post.

COMMUNITY SING

SUFFICIENT PLEDGES TO MAINTAIN IT FOR SIX MONTHS ANNOUNCED BY MR. MITCHELL

The large audience which gathered at the High School Thursday evening to participate in the Community Sing was disappointed at first to learn that Professor Kirchoffer was not present to lead them, but most agreeably disapointed when later they listened to a very fine musical program which was presented by Mrs. A. R. Gates, chairman of the Altruistic work in Southern California. Those giving the program are musicians and readers of great ability who have been volunteering this work, giving their services for Red Cross, hospital and other institutions. Mrs. Gates, who has been working with Professor Kirchoffer the past year, is a leader herself and a woman of most charming personality as well as of great musical ability. Mrs. L. N. Hagood was at the piano for the chorus work and gave splendid support to the chorus.

Alexander Mitchell, chairman of the organization, made the announcement that owing somewhat to a misunderstanding and somewhat to the fact that the arrangements to secure Professor Kirchoffer for a definite period had not been made in time to notify him and that an engagement for the evening had been made some time previous and could not be broken on so short a notice, that Professor Kirchoffer would not be present. John Robert White moved that the services of Professor Kirchoffer be engaged for the period of six months as leader of the Glendale Community Singing. Motion carried.

The program for the evening was kindly contributed by the chorus and the following artists:

Scotch solo and a patriotic solo by Miss Martin, singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner."

President Mitchell announces that hereafter each Thursday evening for the next six months at 7:45 there will be community singing at the High School. All urged to come, no fee whatever.

DEATH OF CLAUDE ROBINSON

Claude B. Robinson, head of the Robinson Transfer Company of this city, who has been critically ill for several weeks, died Thursday evening, September 12th, 1918, at 6:30 o'clock.

He was born in Tennessee March 3d, 1882, and came to Glendale with his mother and other relatives seven years ago, in the hope that the mild climate of Southern California would benefit his health. He established himself in a grocery business at the corner of Park avenue and Brand boulevard which he later sold to Frank N. Motsch. He then bought out Carroll's Transfer business, re-establishing it under his own name and with the assistance of his brother Hearn Robinson has built up a business which necessitated the building of a handsome warehouse of concrete construction on Brand boulevard near Colorado. He was a bachelor and will be deeply mourned by his mother, Mrs. W. S. Miller, by Hearn Robinson, with whom he was so closely associated, and by his sister, Mrs. G. E. Alexander, also of this city.

Funeral services will be held Monday, September 16th, at 10 o'clock at the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, where interment will be made, with Scovern, Letton & Frey in charge.

AN EXTRA BATH

Messrs. McBain, Glaze, Tupper and Sauter went fishing at San Pedro last Sunday and Mr. McBain had the misfortune to fall in the ocean just before the boat tied up at the wharf. At least his friends report that he suffered that mishap, which they declare was the greater by reason of the fact that he was dressed in his Sunday clothes. They also report that he was able to get out without assistance. Their catch was four yellowtails. The boat which bore them was the launch Lotta which is owned by Wallace Tupper, O. M. Clinton and Herman Nelson of this city.

JOYFUL REGISTRATION

GLENDALE'S TOTAL IS OVER 1500 AND TOTAL FOR DISTRICT IS 3500

If there had been any bands on duty in Glendale yesterday they would certainly have played "Everybody's Doing It" in compliment to the men who streamed into the eight registration places provided in this city from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. not to speak of the special place at the headquarters of the local Exemption Board in the City Hall where at five o'clock they claimed their registrations had run between 450 and 500, though they had not had time to count them. By six o'clock, Mattison B. Jones, member of the Board, who had been out scouting at Lankershim, prophesied a total for this district (County No. 7) of 3000.

Precincts 1, 2 and 10, at 239 North Central, where Albert D. Pearce, Chief Registrar, was assisted by Charles L. Chandler and C. C. Stephenson, the registration was 139.

Precincts 4, 5 and 7, at Packer & White Garage, where Chief Registrar Stephen Packer was helped by O. E. Von Oven and T. E. Pierce, registration 206.

Precincts 6, 13 and 14, 817 South Brand, O. E. Lane, Chief Registrar, Walter Stamps and D. R. Jackson, Associates, registration 99.

Precincts 15 and 22, at 725 South Adams, T. W. Preston, Chief; A. W. Tower, Associate, registration 59.

Precincts 3, 8 and 9, at Brand and California, Frederick Baker, chief, W. E. Evans and Clem Moore, Associates, registration 140.

Precincts 11, 12 and 21, at Glendale and Third, Oliver O. Clark, Chief, R. D. King, E. U. Emery and Mr. Blackburn, Associates, registration 155.

Precincts 16, 17 and 18 at Park and Brand, Henry P. Goodwin, Chief; Irving Oliver and Hal Davenport, associates, registration 130.

Precincts 19 and 20, at city building, Brand and Los Feliz, C. C. Rittenhouse, Chief, W. J. Hibert, associate, registration 135.

These with the exemption Board registration made an approximate total of 1500, or more than half the total expected from County District No. 7.

Eagle Rock reported just before registration closed a total of 200, Burbank 375, Lankershim 225, and Saugus 140.

At this writing the Exemption Board has not been able to make a complete count of its own registrations or of the registration in the precincts for which returns have been made. However, when its estimated registrations of 450 are added to the

JUBILEE BANQUET

PRESBYTERIANS CELEBRATE RELEASE FROM DEBT WITH A FINE DINNER

Thursday night members of the three official boards of the Glendale Presbyterian Church and their ladies gathered in the banquet hall of the church to celebrate with a delicious dinner of thanksgiving their jubilee donations and rejoice over the fact that financially the church now has a clean slate and can go forward unhampered in its work for Christ and the community.

Included in the three boards are trustees, deacons and elders, numbering about thirty-five men and, as stated, the wives of these men, most of whom are equally active in church work, were also guests. There was a guest of honor, W. J. Clendenin of Glendale, whose generosity was the chief occasion of the jubilee.

James Newton was chairman of the committee which had charge of the formal program, Mrs. M. P. Harrison, chairman of the banquet committee.

The banquet was worthy the great occasion and delicious in every particular. It included a meat course, with vegetables on the side, salad, bread and butter, iced tea, and ice cream and cake.

It was followed by after-dinner talks. R. P. Isitt spoke on behalf of the three boards, expressing their satisfaction in the present situation, which will enable the church to "carry on" without incumbrance.

Pastor Edmonds spoke in a general way, reviewing the early history of the church and its development into one of the largest in the Presbytery.

Mrs. T. W. Preston talked on behalf of the women of the church and their joy in freedom from debt and the impetus to fresh endeavor which financial independence will give.

FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN FOUR AND ONE-QUARTER PER CENT INTEREST

Secretary McAdoo has definitely announced that the Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds will pay 4¼ per cent interest.

The Secretary has been insistent that the Government interest rate should be stabilized at 4¼ per cent. He points out that a raise in the rate of interest of only one-quarter of one per cent on Ten Billion Dollars of Government Bonds would mean an annual increase of Twenty-Five Million in interest charges and that this money would have to be raised by increased taxation and paid by the people of the country. It would not be paid by one class only, because there are consumption as well as other kinds of taxes and the consumption taxes reach every class of people. "As an intelligent people," said Secretary McAdoo, "we should now make a stand for the financing of our Government during the period of this war, at a rate of interest, say at 4¼ per cent per annum so that all business and all investments may be adjusted to that basis."

The Campaign for the Fourth Liberty Loan begins September 28th and closes October 19th. We have a great inspiration for a great effort. The news from the battle front inspires every American heart with a great incentive to do his or her bit here at home to back up our gallant boys who are driving the Huns over the Rhine. There must be no shirking orshifting of the individual burden. There is none in France and the least we can do here at home is to maintain our loyalty and patriotism on an equal level with that of the boys over there. The largest loan ever called for will be placed before the American people on September 28th. Prompt and efficient work is absolutely necessary and prompt and liberal subscriptions is the call today to the patriotic American.

Y. M. C. A. WAR WORK FUND

Preliminary plans for the part which th California Y. M. C. A. will take in the United War Fund drive for $170,000,000 from November 11 to 18 will be outlined on September 21 and 22 in San Francisco and on September 23 in Los Angeles, according to announcement by the War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. this week. Hundreds of Y. M. C. A. secretaries, workers and committeemen from all parts of the state will attend the two conferences when every detail of the approaching campaign will be gone over. This city will be represented by several delegates, it is stated.

Fred B. Smith, one of the foremost Christian business men of the country, and Harry Holmes, fresh from the European battle front, will be the principal speakers in a team of five or six prominent Y. M. C. A. workers from the East. In many ways the conference is to be a rehearsal or school of instruction for those who will appear before the public in November in the United War Fund drive.

California's quota of the $115,000,000 required for their war work by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. will be $3,162,500, which is 55 per cent of the Western department's quota. The consolidation at the request of President Wilson of the war funds of the Knights of Columbus, Jewish Welfare Society, War Camp Community Service, American Library Association and Salvation Army adds largely to the sum to be raised.

The work of the California Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. in the interests of the war fund is to be under the general chairmanship of George W. Marston, of San Diego. Campaign headquarters have been opened in San Francisco under the direction of Ernest L. Mogge, of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A.

AMERICA'S ANSWER TO AUTOCRACY

A little over a year ago there were some 3,000,000 United States bondholders; there are now somewhere between 20,000,000 and 25,000,000. Awakened patriotism has made the American people a saving people, a bond-buying people. The effect of the Liberty Loan on the national character, on our national life, on the individual citizen and our home life is immeasurable—of incalculable benefit. Not less incalculable is the effect on the destiny of the world as our ships plow the seas and our men and material in Europe beat back the Hun.

The Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign will begin Saturday, September 28th, and close October 19th. No American doubts its success; no good American will fail to contribute to its success. The blood of our men fallen in Europe calls to us; our ansewr must be and will be worthy of them and our Country.

The Fourth Loan will be a greater thing than the world ever attempted, but every American knows that this war duty will be met. Managers of the Oregon State Campaign announce that no matter what size the loan, Oregon will go over the top the first week of the campaign. A similar statement comes from Washington. The patriotic response of Southern California in the Third Liberty Loan is positive assurance that Southern California will not be found lacking on this occasion and a similar assurance may reasonably be made by the Campaign managers for Southern California.

The Liberty Loan Campaign is a duty today that will be met as all war duties are being met in this district. There will be no failure by the people to measure up to the courage and devotion of our men in Europe. Many of them have given up their lives; and every true American in Southern California will not hesitate one single minute to lend his money to back these boys up who are so valiantly offering the supreme sacrifice in your interests. Every loyal citizen of Southern California must know that the more bonds we buy the fewer boys need die.

On September 28th, double the subscription you made to the Third Loan. Let America's answer to Autocracy be heard clear around the world.

CHRISTMAS ROLL CALL

Henry P. Davison, Chairman of the War Council, announces that in the week of December 16 to 23, inclusive, there will be a Christmas roll call of the whole American people for membership in the American Red Cross.

Mr. Davison authorized this statement: "From December 16 to 23, lists will be open for every American in ever corner of the world so that it may be known that the whole nation at home and abroad is registered for the cause. The American Red Cross wants again to give the world notice not only that America can fight, but that to the last man, woman and child we stand for mercy, honor and good faith among nations.

"At the close of the Christmas membership campaign of 1917, there were 22,000,000 Americans enrolled in the American Red Cross. There are also 8,000,000 members in the Junior Red Cross. This year both as a Christmas observance and as a renewal of the nation-wide pledge of loyalty, the American Red Cross will again put before everyone the duty of standing by the flag; for the American Red Cross, in this great fight for peace, represents the whole spirit of what we are fighting for.

"This will not be a call for money. It will be a summons to Americans everywhere to line up for the American ideal. We can not all fight, but this one thing everybody can do. The American Red Cross membership fee is $1.00. Half of this remains with the local chapter to be used for expenses and for relief of our soldiers and their families; the other half goes to the National Treasury.

"There will be no allotment of quotas to a community. The quota in every district will be the limit of its adult population. When the roll call comes every American, old or young, will be called on to register and add the weight of his name to the Red Cross message. Let us answer with one voice to the word of President Wilson when he said, 'I summon you to the comradeship.'"

A. B. C. DOHRMANN,
Acting Manager, San Francisco.

The War Finance Corporation of the Treasury Department, supplementing the work of the Federal Reserve banks in rediscounting commercial paper, will make advances under section 7 of the act creating the corporation to banks to assist them in financing the moving of this year's crop. Advances to both member and non-member banks are contemplated in the plan.

The fiscal agents of the corporation for this financing are the Federal Reserve banks of Richmond, Atlanta, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Dallas, and San Francisco.

The advances are limited to 75 per cent of the amount of the loan made by the banks for the crop movement or to 100 per cent in case a bank itself furnishes sufficient additional collateral security.

Inasmuch as the advances are to be for crop-moving purposes only, these loans will be limited to four months. The rate of interest will be 5 per cent. Full information can be secured from the Federal Reserve banks.

Mrs. Edgar Leavitt, 512 Orange street, entertained her cousin, Mrs. Rose Wheeler of Venice, on Thursday.

Charles W. Ingledue spent yesterday afternoon at the beach. He is feeling much better and will be back in the market in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Thearlf and small child are newcomers in Glendale, having taken one of Mr. Collins' cottages at 236 Dayton court. They formerly resided in Pasadena.

Mrs. Irvine, state president of the W. C. T. U., and other state officers will be present this evening at the J. Stitt Wilson meeting at the First Methodist church.

Carrol D. Peet, who has been stationed at the navy yard, Mare Island, for the past seventeen months, has finished his electrical course and is enjoying a two weeks' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Peet, 1437 West First street.

Miss Sara E. Pollard has gone to Winslow, Arizona, where she is filling a position in the Santa Fe offices, made vacant by a man who has gone to the colors. Another case where women can do a patriotic deed by releasing a man for the trenches.

Miss Frances Smith of 1433 West First street and Miss Myrtle Painter of Acacia street, Tropico district, have entered the Academy at San Fernando, where they will attend school the ensuing year. These young ladies will occupy a room at the girls' hall.

Mrs. Lyman Andrews and daughter, Mrs. Floribel Pundt of Dundee, Illinois, are guests of Mrs. Glen Smith, 812 South Brand boulevard, and Mrs. G. H. Rowe, 516 South Orange street. Mrs. Pundt is a reader of much ability and is in great demand in her home state, where she is recognized as at the head of her chosen line of work.

Mrs. Frank Beyea, who has been living at Tucson, Arizona, for the past two years, has returned to Glendale and will make her home here, placing her children in school. Mrs. Beyea, with her four children, has been spending the summer at Santa Monica and for the present will make their home with Mrs. A. Beyea, but later expect to occupy their old home, 1426 West Fifth street.

It will be of interest to her many friends to learn that Miss Ruth Taggart of Indianapolis, who was instructor on Tuesdays in the surgical dressing department of the Red Cross in Glendale last winter during her stay in Glendale, has just completed her course as a Red Cross nurse at Vassar College. Miss Taggart will be at home in Indianapolis for a short rest of two weeks, then will take up work in the hospital which is connected with the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia.

Mrs. Edward Dale of 1461 Salem street was the hostess at an informal afternoon at home to a few of her friends on Wednesday afternoon. The ladies brought their knitting and spent the afternoon in that profitable employment. The house was prettily decorated with golden rod and the hostess served dainty refreshments of ice cream and punch. The guests enjoying Mrs. Dale's hospitality were Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker and her sister, Mrs. Franklin Head of Oklahoma, Miss Edith Tyler, Mrs. Earl Clark, Los Angeles, Mrs. E. M. Dale and Miss Janet Dale.

Lieutenant Nowell H. Smith son of Mrs. J. G. Smith of 1433 West First street, who has been stationed at Kelly Field, San Antonio, Texas, for the past year, was transferred to Rockwell Field, San Diego, about September 1, in order to take a special course in aerial gunnery. Lieutenant Smith was home on a furlough in August and the transfer was made immediately on his return to Kelly Field. Lieutenant Smith's was one of the squadron of nine aeroplanes which flew over Glendale Sunday. Mr. Smith was one of the three aeroplanes which gave an exhibition over the baseball park at Pasadena during the game Saturday. On Sunday he repeated the "thrills" over the Washington street ball park, Los Angeles, doing what is called the tail spin about 20 times. His mother was an interested spectator Sunday.

All who will sing in the Harvest Chorus of the big Red Cross Benefit are asked to meet at the Intermediate School, Third street auditorium, on Monday night at 7:30 for rehearsal.

MRS. L. N. HAGOOD, Director.

CITY SCHOOL TRUSTEES

APPOINT NEW TEACHERS AND JANITORS AND DISCUSS REOPENING MAGNOLIA SCHOOL

A meeting of the trustees of Glendale City Schools was held last evening (Thursday) at the Intermediate School with Mrs. Charles Toll, president, in the chair and Trustees D. J. Hibben and John Todd in attendance.

The first item of business was the presentation of a petition from parents residing in the neighborhood of the Magnolia School asking for the re-opening of that school. The petition was laid upon the table until after the opening of the city schools, when the enrollment will determine whether the granting of the petition will be practicable or not.

The resignations of two janitors were presented, viz., Mr. Mitchell at the Doran street school and J. E. Howes at the Broadway school. William Wood was appointed for the Doran school and Charles Bullard was given the other appointment.

Resignations of teachers were then presented as follows: Misses Gladys Hamilton, Ruth Pierce, Edna Bliven, Margaret Weatherby Henshey and Mrs. Marie Pierce. The appointments to fill the vacancies were: Elsie B. Bremneman, Music Supervisor, Anna A. Stewart, Physical Director, Misses Martha Sinclair, Henrietta Holloway, Grace White, Martha Eilers, and Mrs. L. E. Gray, who are grade teachers.

Mr. Ferris, representing the Desmond Company of Los Angeles, was present with a request to be permitted to bid on furnishing uniforms for pupils of the Intermediate School. His proposition was laid on the table until the matter could be canvassed with parents of pupils to ascertain whether the adoption of uniforms was desired.

No other business of general interest was taken up and the Board adjourned.

J. STITT WILSON TONIGHT

After a hard 300-mile trip by auto yesterday, J. Stitt Wilson arrived in Pasadena, where those who heard him report a wonderful address. The great audience showed a special tenderness because of the recent loss of Wilson's only son. He is bravely enduring his bereavement, being consoled by the heroic life the young man lived. Only the Monday before the son met his death in the air at Sacramento, he had a long visit with his father and said that one of the most thrilling thoughts that came to him as he glided in his aviation flights far above the California towns was that he had done his best to make them better. Both four years ago and two years ago the younger Wilson had spoken in the dry campaigns.

Nevertheless, it has required courage on the part of J. Stitt Wilson so soon after his heavy loss to take up his speaking engagements.

This part of San Fernando Valley is to have a great privilege tonight to hear his address at the First Methodist church. Never before in the history of California has the voter faced so many perplexing issues on the ballot for November 5. Among the twenty-four measures on the ballot, two especially affect the liquor business, the Rominger Bill and the Bone-Dry Bill, which conflict in such a way that whichever receives the higher vote will nullify the other. Besides this vital matter the election of the whole lower house and half the upper house of our legislature is wrapped up in the next winter's fight at Sacramento over the ratification of the national prohibition amendment to the constitution.

The problems of our California wine business, of our national taxes, of winning the war, are all involved in the great issues facing the electorate. Hence every citizen owes it to himself and to the state to come out tonight to hear one of the most logical and eloquent minds on the coast explain these issues.

As the Methodist church auditorium is the largest in the city, all should be able to secure comfortable seats.

GLENDALE NEWS EFFECTIVE

Another evidence that the Glendale Evening News is widely read in Glendale was given today when in response to the little notice in Thursday's issue which stated that free exchange of "Old Numbers for New" would be offered the public at the Glendale Evening News office, a steady procession filed through our doors, old and young, the octogenarian, the kindergartner, the busy housewife and the hurry-up school boy. They came by automobiles, limousines and trucks, on bicycles and on foot.

But on learning through Mr. Spencer, Vice-Chairman of the Red Cross, that the salvage department had arranged to handle this exchange for the benefit of the Red Cross, the visitors were directed to the Red Cross Shop, 318 South Brand boulevard. The situation was accepted in good spirit by all and they cheerfully departed, only too willing to give that worthy cause the benefit of the few pennies that were asked for making the exchange.

Y. M. C. A. workers are establishing dugouts and huts close to the front line trenches for the use of Portuguese troops.

RED CROSS EVENTS

At 11 a. m. today, Chairman Lanterman reported that all returns were not in but that receipts to that time indicated a total registration for the District of 3500.

A sort of joyful excitement seemed to pervade all these registration centers which was hard to reconcile with grim war. It appeared to be the thrill of anticipation of the chance to get into the biggest, greatest game that the men of this country or the world will ever know. The letters from our boys at the front, and stirring reports of American victories have so far swept away all selfish considerations that every man wants to go. Americans love to take a chance and this war is the greatest, noblest gamble that any man in this generation will have an opportunity to get into. Is it patriotism? Yes, and an altruistic desire to liberate the world, but it is also the lure of the Great Adventure.

The men "caught by the draft" congratulated each other, while the school boys and men over 45 looked on enviously, declaring their willingness to go.

The general impression prevails that few of those who have just registered will have a chance to serve abroad because the war will soon end in the utter collapse of Germany's resistance, but the same interpreters of the situation declared it would do no harm at this stage of affairs for Germany to learn that millions of reserves are longing for a chance to take a shot at the Hun.

But just think what will happen in Glendale if they do go! Consider our list of city officials. Among the registrants yesterday were T. W. Watson, City Manager, Harry Lynch of the Public Service Department, S. D. Phillips of the same department, Edward M. Lynch, City Engineer, W. E. Evans, City Attorney, Hartley Shaw, City Trustee and also member of the High School Board of Trustees, Chief of Police Herald and nearly all the members of the police and fire departments.

Richardson D. White, Superintendent of City Grade Schools, Harry Howe, Assistant Principal of the High School, and Irving Oliver, its Business Manager, and W. D. Root were early registrants.

B. Dudley Snudden, Pastor of the Methodist Church, got his little card and so did Herman Nelson, Cashier of the Bank of Glendale. Then there was quite a list of Los Angeles attorneys who live in Glendale, Oliver O. Clark, H. P. Goodwin, Albert G. Pearce, Charles Chandler and others.

Dr. Henry R. Harower was booked for a trip to Fresno but he did not leave until he had visited the Registrar. Dr. C. Stuart Steelman and Dr. Irving Leland Smith made the same kind of a visit, and so did John A. Logan, the bank cashier.

F. J. Henry, the Sierra Beverages manufacturer, enrolled as did two of his four employes. His partner, Mr. Brown, is already enlisted with the Canadian forces, but Mr. Henry declares he is ready and willing and if the government wants them all, they will shut up the factory and go without a complaint.

These are just samples of the many men in this great reserve army whose going would leave a hole in the community not easily filled.

All the High School pupils have returned and settled down for the term's work. The Grammar school will open September 23.

"Little Bo Peep she taught her sheep
The famous War Stamp letters,
Then told her flocks they must furnish socks and
And likewise wool for sweaters.
Now sheep don't shirk, they set to work
With very real elation,
To give their fleece to hasten peace,
Their flesh to feed the nation."
Buy Thrift Stamps.

The Red Cross classes are filling up. Gauze work is rushing and help, lots of it, is needed. We are called upon to furnish a certain number of dressings and our civic pride will not let us falter. Come out Tuesday or Thursday (come to both if you will), 10 to 5, and help our boys.

Mrs. Cobb and the different lieutenants have work for the knitters, so none need be idle.

"There was a man in our town,
And he was wondrous wise,
He took his change in War Thrift Stamps,
The twenty-five cent size.
And when he found what thrift would do,
With all his might and main,
He bought some more Thrift Savings Stamps,
Again, again, again."

The Woman's Club announces a vaudeville and dance for Saturday, October 19. This is the first of the fall series and will be a dandy. Details about the vaudeville next week, when the committee will have all their talent arranged.

The Farm Bureau met on Thursday night at La Canada schoolhouse. These are most interesting meetings and all are invited to enjoy them.

Picture show Tuesday, "The Stepping Stone," with Frank Keenan. This is a dandy story, of a woman who refused to be her husband's stepping stone. You will miss something if you fail to see this Tuesday. The story is by Gardner Sullivan and it was supervised by Thomas H. Ince himself, so you know it is worth while. And there is also a big war picture, "The Whispering Wires of War." Bring the children along, too. They will enjoy it.

There has been some trouble with the picnic parties in the park pulling up the posts and parking cars inside the fence. The posts have been put down so deep this week that it will be no easy job to pull them up. There is a parking place provided.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist Church met with Mrs. Huse at her home on Summit avenue, Thursday. The society has an order for a quilt which they are hurrying to get done. Next week will be the yearly election of officers. A full attendance is desired as there is some important business to bring before the society.

For the Household

1. No household should have on hand more than two pounds of sugar at any one time for table and cooking use and not more than 25 pounds for canning.

2. Canning sugar must be kept separate from that purchased for household purposes so that the Food Administration inspectors may check up the quantity on hand, the amount of fruit put up and compare it with the original amount purchased. Any excess canning sugar left over MUST be returned to the grocer. It is not permitted to use this for table purposes.

3. Do all preserving without sugar wherever possible, adding it when used in the winter at a time when sugar will be more plentiful.

4. Each person in a family is allowed two pounds of sugar per month, which means that not more than six lumps or three teaspoonfuls may be used each day by any individual without exceeding the allowance. This two pound allotment includes that used for cooking.

For Public Eating Houses

1. All sugar bowls should be removed from the tables and individual sugar furnished each patron.

2. Not more than two half lumps or one teaspoonful of sugar should be served a customer at a meal. He may have his choice of lump or granulated sugar but not both.

THE WORLD WAGS ON

The world wags along when you've plenty to spare,
It still wags along though you're burdened with care;
It takes no account of our struggles and strife,
The highest and lowest have each but one life.
Some strive to win fortune and bid far too much,
They lose the bit they have in their hopes to grow rich;
Their longed-for successes all fall very tame,
All's lost, but the world wags on just the same.

We've had heroes whose deeds men will never forget;
We've had tyrants and traitors—a villainous set;
We've had moralists, willing their life's blood to spill,
To cleanse the world of errors and truths to instill;
We've had prophets to tell us the millenium's near,
We've had scorners who smile, and scoffers who sneer,
Some painting Heaven's bounties, some threatening Hell's flame;
And yet, spite of all, the world wags on just the same.

An earthquake may shake a proud city to dust,
A mine may explode or a reservoir burst;
A plague may destroy, or a famine may rage,
Misfortune may blacken fair history's page;
Yet the sun ne'er forgets when its time to appear,
And though clouds may obscure it, we know that it's there;
So vainly we praise, or as vainly we blame,
Unmoved and serene, the world wags on just the same.

BROTHERS DIE SIDE BY SIDE

By Frank J. Taylor
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE, August 19. (By Mail.)—In a tiny village of Lorraine where a regiment of "doughboys" was resting after a long stretch of time in the trenches, a German shell found a mark in two brothers. They were rushed to the nearest hospital mortally wounded.

They were just regular hard-fighting "doughboys," liked by all the men in D compay because they were "good pals who always did a little more than their share of the work." Every man in the company admired the brothers because he had seen them behave bravely when it was hard to be brave.

Out of all the men in D company it was hard to see why fate had singled these two to be struck by one German shell. Fate makes no explanations, so the doctors in the hospital operated skillfully and quickly on the brothers and placed them in beds next to each other in a ward full of wounded.

For a time both men lay there hovering between life and death, and there was uncertainty whether or not they would ever gain consciousness.

Finally one of them stirred slightly, opened his eyes, and gradually came to his senses. A motherly nurse bent over him, and eased his pain as much as possible. Then she whispered to him that his brother was on the next cot, but still unconscious .

The conscious brother looked dazed, but gradually an enlightened look came into his eyes, as he recollected what had happened in the last three hours. He looked across to the next cot, faintly reached his arm toward his brother, and whispered, "Joe, how are you?"

The other brother stirred slightly, and gradually regained his senses. The nurses gently eased him, as he looked around with a puzzled look, and finally told him, "Here's your brother on the next cot."

The second brother looked over with pained amazement.

"What are you in bed for, George? Are you hurt, too?"

"Yes, Joe, they say the same shell got us both."

Are you hurt badly, George?"

"I think so, Joe, I feel awful weak. How are you? Does it hurt you a lot, boy?"

"I don't know as it does. I'm weak too. But there's another feeling I can't describe."

"What is it, Joe?"

"I dunno, George. But, remember the things Mother used to tell us when we were little, and fought to get on her lap? I keep hearing her telling us Sunday school stories, George, over and over, just the way she used to do it years ago.'

"We were on our way to mass when it hit us, Joe. Maybe that's why you hear Mother telling Bible stories. I can hear her now, too, Joe."

"I wish she were here, don't you?"

"I should say so, Joe. Maybe the nurse or someone will talk to us the way Mother used to. We ought to do it anyway, because if something happened to either of us, Mother would like to know we were all right.

"I think so, too, but say,—George."

"Yes?"

"If I should die, you'll be careful so you can go back and look after Mother, won't you?"

"That's a promise, Joe. I want you to make the same one to me."

"Let's shake on it, George."

They reached their arms across the space between the beds and clasped hands.

"I'm not afraid," said Joe, "if you come through all right, Joe. I wish we didn't have to leave D company, though, but even if we got well we probably couldn't go back with the boys. I'm afraid I'm pretty low, but don't you worry. There's no pain now."

"I'm not in pain, either, George, but awfully sleepy. We don't have to worry about company D, because the boys'll never lose a chance to get a German."

"That's right, too. I feel myself going to sleep, so good-bye, Joe."

"Good-bye, George."

The brothers drowsed back into their pillows, and the old hospital chaplain, who had just arrived, made his services a simple prayer for two brothers who were never to awake from the sleep they were entering.

In a certain New England town a brave mother has already been told by Uncle Sam how the nation appreciated the brave sons she reared, taught and sacrificed "to make the world a decent place to live in."

In a certain New England regiment on the front in France every man in D company has promised himself and his "pals" that D company will never lose a chance to get a German.
